The Charcoal milk jug from Olympias caf collection wears a colour that creates an almost industrial feel while the minimalist styling and modern shape create a contrasting appearance.

By omitting a handle from the design your customer gains more control over the pouring and thanks to the super fine pouring tip means they can pour the exact amount they want, avoiding tea that is too milky.

- Fine pouring spout
- Complements the Cafe collection
- Mix and match colours
- Contrasting white interior
- Compact, handle free design
- Material : Stoneware
