Cook delicious meals with ease thanks to the De Buyer Chocinduction Non Stick Cast Aluminium Frying Pan.

The cast aluminium pan has a pre-applied non-stick finish that makes food easy to slide off the pan to serve and speeds up cleaning times.

- Induction CompatibleYes
- The very thick aluminium allows for rapid and even distribution of the heat, both on the bottom and the sides, without overheating at any point.
- The extra strong, epoxy coated stainless steel handles are fixed by extremely robust rivets.
- To ensure the cookware retains all of its properties, do not heat over 250C.
- Suitable for all heat sources, including induction.
- Not dishwasher safe
