Have you had enough of scrubbing your frying pans to try and remove burnt on food These Bourgeat frying pans will save you time and money thanks to their non-stick coating, helping food to slide off the pan and reduce burnt on residues.

As well as being practical, the pan is also extremely durable, made from stainless steel, allowing the 200mm pan to stand up to constant use in commercial and domestic kitchens.

- Excellent non-stick cooking surface, coated four times for extra long life
- Not dishwasher safe
- Epoxy finished steel handle fixed by sturdy rivets
- Heat resistance to 150 degrees centigrade
- Can be used on any heating surface except induction hobs
- Reinforced base and 3-5mm body thickness
- 200mm
- Material : Stainless Steel and Aluminium
- Capacity : 900ml
