Designed for countertop use, the MagiKitchen RMB gas chargrill is an effective and flexible solution for getting great cooking results.

With the generously-sized 36" width cooking grate there is plenty of space for any busy service, whilst the heavy duty free-floating rounded rods provide highly precise grilling. And thanks to the intelligent design, fat and grease are easily channelled away from the food into a removable trough for simple cleaning. Powerful and reliable, the MagiKitchen chargrill gives you the performance you need.

- V-shaped radiant for each burner
