The Modena SL195 Commercial meat slicer features a compact design that's ideal for small operations.

An ideal addition to small meat slicing needs, this light-duty slicer provides 1/4 hp of power so that you can quickly slice up your own meats or vegetables for sandwiches, pizzas, and starters. Perfect for low-volume applications where a slicer is used less than 1 hour per day, this unit is a great choice for cafes, takeaways, small restaurants, and catering businesses.
